COACH LANDON

"OLD TEACHERS NEVER LOSE THEIR CLASS"

We received the following letter from the daughter of teacher/coach Ed Landon. Mr Landon served at Cleveland High School from 1948 to 1973. He taught history classes as well as coaching football, baseball and basketball. He was the head football coach from 1954 to 1957. [Editor's note: As a player I would like to point out that Coach Landon made football a lot of fun.]

To CHS Alumni

For those who would enjoy seeing how well my 97 year old dad is looking these days, here's a photo of him with his little sidekick, Lexi. Dad was born shortly after the start of WW I and he can still reminisce in detail about how the Great Depression affected his family and college years; and his experiences from four different decades at Cleveland. My sister Marlys and her husband Russ are taking very good care of him at their home in Madras, OR.

Many thanks to all who have responded to my request for greetings and comments to him from his former students...it means so much!

Sincerely,

Barbara Landon Doern
littlehanover@gmail.com

Barbara told a story about her dad: Some student had brought some fake vomit to school and put it on his desk. He walked into the room, looked at it, picked it up and put it in his pocket. The kid who brought it protested, but he said, "It's MINE."

He brought it home, and when no one was watching, he placed it on our brand new carpet in front of the fireplace. A little later my mom walked into the living room and saw it, and as I remember, she sort of screamed. Not a "woman in danger of being murdered" scream but a guttural "WHO DID THIS???" scream. My dad came running and played along with her in her outrage. All of us (4) kids came running and we stood there with our eyes bugging out, denying having anything to do with it. At that point the cat decided to hide under the bed. My mom went into the kitchen and returned with nearly a whole roll of paper towels in her hands. She knelt down and scooped up the mess, which of course came up in one piece. At that point my dad knew the jig was up and cracked his "silly face" — a wry smile that tipped everybody off as to the true nature of the event. I can still remember how hard my mom laughed when she realized she'd been had. She too had a very good sense of humor!

A NEW LOOK FOR THE CHS ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

John Barton '54 has stepped down and Dottie Chin '74 is the new president of the Alumni Association. Things have never looked so GREAT !!! Instead of having vacancies on the board of directors, we now have a surplus of people that want to be involved. If this trend continues then we will likely recommend an increase in the number of directors at the next annual meeting.

Activities associated with our Association include the following:

- We will have a ceremony at the CHS Memorial Forest on the Friday of this coming Memorial Day weekend — May 25th — to honor our fallen heroes (see page 4). New restrooms have been added to the facility.
- Our scholarship budget was raised to $10,000 last year and this year to $15,000.
- Our annual golf tournament is planned for this August 4th at Jefferson Park Golf Course.
- We are giving financial support to CHS sports teams with emphasis on helping the teams that are willing

CLEVELAND FOOTBALL COACH RECEIVES STATE SPORTSMANSHIP AWARD

Dec. 9, 2011 | Audience: Families, Community, Staff

Ronn Jackson, football coach at Cleveland High School, has received the 2011 Pacific Northwest Football Officials Association Sportsmanship Award. This award is given annually to the high school football coach in Washington state that exemplifies true sportsmanship throughout the season - regardless of the team's win/loss record.

The Inscription on the plaque says: "Victory is in the Quality of Competition, not in the final score," a quote from Mike Marshall, a former major league baseball pitcher.

Football officials across Washington cast their vote for the award. It was Jackson's ability to ensure that his players demonstrate sportsmanship during every game, no matter what odds, that inspired the Pacific Northwest Football Officials to recognize the entire team.

The award was a surprise to Jackson who was attending the event to support Clarence Coler, who received the top high school athlete sportsmanship award.

- to help themselves.
- We had our first essay contest last fall with cash awards for the top three contestants.
- Member donations have been conservatively invested and are showing an increase of approximately six percent for the first four months of this year.
- We have recommended updating the bylaws of the Association and will vote on them at the next annual meeting.
- A new fundraiser is planned for October 20 — A FUN NIGHT OF POKER FOR CHS ALUMNI !!!

In general the board of directors is made up of younger people than what we've had in recent years. These are your former classmates who have committed to giving back to the high school that helped mold them into the people that they are today. Anyone that attended CHS as a student is eligible to serve — all one has to do is apply.

Return to: The CHS MEMORIAL FOREST
 Alumni Aspires to Honor Our War Heroes

The April 1944 edition of the Cleveland Journal carried a lead story reporting that Mr. Imus and Mr. Selby (vice principal and principal, respectively) were looking for a tract of land to be used as a reforestation project and a memorial for men who lost their lives in WW II. At that time they were looking at two tracts, one on Vashon Island and one east of Seattle. The eastside location, consisting of 132 acres, was purchased with money raised by the student body. This site continues to be used for a memorial to former Cleveland students lost during WW II, Korea, and Vietnam. The names of these fallen heroes are on plaques cast by CHS metal shop students and attached to Memorial Rock located in the forest. Beginning in 1998, as a Memorial Day event, alumni and students have gathered for a program and "Trek to the Rock" to honor these War Heroes. [CHS is the only high school in the universe known to have a Memorial Forest.]

Every gathering at the forest has been different. On one Memorial Day, three Blue Angels flew overhead just as our program was about to begin. That was an unexpected and glorious beginning of the day. On another occasion the Rolhletter family donated a flagpole that stands on the grounds today. We have had guest speakers recalling the wars and the effects these wars have had on individuals and families. Drama, music and language arts students have presented programs reflecting compassion and respect for all who have served our country. Our ceremony generally includes a rifle squad, the playing of taps, and students involved in folding of the flag and its symbolic presentation to a surviving relative. It is normally held on the Friday at the start of the Memorial Day weekend.

Our last speaker (2010) spoke of her uncle from a Japanese Internment camp joining the military and then losing his life while serving with the 442nd Infantry Regiment during their rescue of the Lost Battalion in France (October 1942). That day at the Memorial Forest was filled with hardship due to weather and miscommunications but it was rewarding to those who stayed for the program.

Last year, due to construction of new restrooms, our Memorial ceremony was held at Tahoma National Cemetery. This year we will return to the Forest. We are pleased to announce that CHS Students will be in attendance with us.

The Trek has not always been easy. Rain has often accompanied us, the trail to the Rock is often a little muddy, but these problems are minor inconveniences when we consider the fighting conditions experienced by our honored dead. The Memorial Forest is an important part of our CHS heritage and we hope to see a large gathering of alumni, students and friends at this Memorial Day ceremony.

Please plan to join us Friday, May 25th at the Cleveland High School Memorial Forest. Our program will start at 11:00 AM.

Support for our Service Men & Women in Uniform Comes in Many Forms

By Alison W. Sing '64

While working on our 2014 50th Class Reunion for the Class of 1964, I happened to exchange emails with a former classmate whose story not only touched my heart but deserves mention in our alumni association newsletter.

For the men and women who don the uniform in the service of our country, support for them comes in many forms; one such story is a former Marine, Ric L. Ryan dubbed the "Walking Man of Murphy" — a town nestled in northern California.

In 1964 on his March 8 birthday, he enlisted in the Marine Corp. After graduating in June he went to Marine boot camp in August and served 13 months in Vietnam. Ric entered civilian life retiring as an ironworker and correctional officer.

What makes this story interesting is his dedication in serving and supporting the men and women in uniform. In 2008, while walking around the county, he saw a CNN story about "Operation Mend," where a group of UCLA doctors were giving their time and surgical skills to fix our injured troops. Where our government promised to make our troops well, these doctors were dedicated to making our injured servicemen and women look as normal as possible.

Upon hearing this story, Ric began walking in earnest. He started counting the waves as he walked throughout the county and put 25 cents in a special bank account for our troops for each wave he counted. Local residents would stop him along the way to donate anywhere from $1 to $100 dollars. A local firm donated a $1,000.

After logging in 3,345 miles around his county, Ric and his wife, Joanne visited Operation Mend at UCLA to donate the funds he had raised. One of the doctors was so moved by his effort that he donated an additional $1,000 bringing his total to $6,500.

A long standing desire for Ric was to visit the Vietnam Memorial in Washington D.C. His wish was honored when a school invited Ric to accompany their 7th and 8th grade class to Washington D.C. "It was a blast" said Ric.

TREASURER'S REPORT

Treasurer's Report 11 April 2012

Please recall that the December 2011 Newsletter included a graph of the last three years of spending. We welcome feedback on our spending history and future plans. We try to allocate spending consistent with the coupons we receive.

In 2011 we had alumni participation in the CHS Memorial Forest Fundraiser (air passenger research study), and the December 2011 Newsletter mentioned our frustration in collecting the proceeds (they inadvertently went to the High School) In February 2012 we finally received a check for the expected amount. Thanks again to the participants.

The graph (upper right) shows the growth of our assets in the last three years.

I have prepared the 2011 yearly report. It was presented at the April 24, 2012 board meeting. It is available from me upon request.
